

Personal invitation to the inaugural Copenhagen Democracy Summit, June 22, 2018

Dear Gregory Miller,

It is my great pleasure to invite you to attend the inaugural Copenhagen Democracy Summit on June 22, 2018. Located at the scenic Royal Danish Playhouse in Central Copenhagen, the Summit will gather business executives and political leaders from the world's democracies to discuss the future of democracy, trade, and technology.

Organized by the Alliance of Democracies Foundation, the annual Copenhagen Democracy Summit will help build stronger interpersonal links between key leaders, binding the world's democracies closer together politically, economically, and culturally. Limited to a select group of 250 participants, the Summit offers top-level networking opportunities in an intimate and intellectually vibrant atmosphere during Denmark's beautiful midsummer season.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Joe Biden, former Vice President, United States
- Felipe Calderon, former President of Mexico
- Jose Maria Aznar, former Prime Minister of Spain
- Stephen Harper, former Prime Minister of Canada
- Nick Clegg, former Deputy Prime Minister of the United Kingdom
- Lars Løkke Rasmussen, Prime Minister of Denmark

The post-World War II international order based on democracy and free trade has come under increasing pressure in recent years from rising autocracies and terrorist organizations. Many of the world's leading democracies are marred by self-doubt and internal divisions amplified by blatant election interference, misinformation and manipulation by antidemocratic forces. At this time, it is critical to renew our faith in democracy and develop new commercial links between our nations.

The annual Copenhagen Democracy Summit will help develop solutions to some of the most important challenges facing the democratic world today. I hope that you will join us in this effort, and I look forward to welcoming you to Copenhagen in June.

Yours sincerely,

Anders Fogh Rasmussen

Chairman

Alliance of Democracies Foundation
